

Poetry for the People

Do you love reading poetry or, have you stayed away from reading poetry but always wanted to understand it better?

“Poetry for the People”

No fee, no prior experience needed.

Wednesday Mornings

January 17 & 31, February 7, 21 and 28, and March 7, 2018

Coronado Public Library Winn Room

640 Orange Avenue

10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

For more information or to sign-up, send an email to:

Rsvp@coronado.lib.ca.us

The poetry course is limited to 20 participants so please register only if you are able to attend all six of the classes.

A six-part class will be offered by Charles Kamar to bring you closer to the beauty of poetry and talent of U.S Poet Laureates, both those of the past and those of the present. No dull textbook analysis here! You will come away with a greater appreciation and enjoyment of poetry. We'll read and discuss twelve or more poets and their poems. We will look at the techniques and use of language that distinguish highly regarded poets and their ability to convey ideas that we, the people, find engaging.

Charles Kamar has a Bachelor's from Boston State and a Master's from Boston University. He has spent his career teaching all grades of secondary education and was recipient of the Paul E. Elicker Award for Excellence in teaching.

